

CN investigates train derailment in Edmonton

ctvedmonton.ca

CN Rail is investigating after three cars on a freight train left the tracks Thursday morning east of 50 St. and Yellowhead Trail.

The train derailment happened around 6:40 a.m.

CN officials say the train wasn't carrying anything dangerous, just some containers, scrap metal and paper.

No injuries were reported. The cause remains under investigation.